

SECRET

INFORMATION REPORT

Poland

Faculty of the Officers' School for the Polish Merchant Marine

NO. OF PAGES

25X1

1. On 1 November 1947 the Officers' School for the Polish Merchant Marine underwent a slight reorganization. Headquarters and the Mechanical Department were to remain at Gdynia but the Navigation Department was to be transferred to Szczecin on this date.
2. The faculty of the Mechanical Department at Gdynia is as follows (no first names available):
  - a. Commander Garmuszewski, Director of the School.
  - b. Engineer Karnocki, inspector, politically non-partisan.
  - c. Engineer Staniak, instructor (machine theory), non-partisan.
  - d. Engineer Jarocki, instructor (electricity), PPR.
  - e. Lawyer Fijal, instructor (history), Socialist.
  - f. Captain Michalik, instructor (English language), non-partisan.
  - g. Professor Kalinowski (English language), non-partisan
  - h. Politrak Hinz, political educator, PPR.
  - i. Politrak Wojcicki, political educator, PPR.
  - j. Politrak Paczynski, political educator, PPR.
3. The faculty of the Navigation Department at Szczecin is as follows:
  - a. Captain-Navigator Kazimierz Maciejewicz, director of department.
  - b. " " Ledochowski, inspector.
  - c. " " Gorazdowski*, instructor (navigation)
  - d. " " Giertowski, instructor (navigation), officer in the Polish Navy.
  - e. " " Zagrodzki, instructor.
  - f. " " Gubala, instructor.
  - g. Politrak Krauski, political educator, PPR.
  - h. " Syroniuk, political educator, PPR.

* Captain Gorazdowski is also the captain of the training ship Dar Pomorza, which has now been transferred to Szczecin.

25X1

SECRET

STATE	NAVY	NSRB	DISTRIBUTION
ARMY	AIR

25X1

Approved For Release 2006/02/01 : CIA-RDP83-00415R000900070018-5

Approved For Release 2006/02/01 : CIA-RDP83-00415R000900070018-5